Incidents

On June 14th, the Maynard Fire Department and Maynard Police Department responded to Sudbury Street for a 3 alarm fire. Luckily all residents were safely evacuated.

Community Outreach

Throughout the month of May, the Maynard Police Department had a collection box in the lobby collecting items for care packages. In June, Lt. Noble, Off. Comeau, Off. Manchuso, and Off. Ruggiero helped Nichole Karlon bring down and mail the 20 + boxes of care packages for the soldiers. Thank You to the American Legion for paying for all the postage to mail the packages. We love to

On June 14th Det. Sweeney and Lt. Noble attend the hearing for Communities for Restorative Justice (C4RJ) at the State House last week with other area police representatives along with C4RJ Executive Director Erin Freeborn and Middlesex District Attorney Marian Ryan. The Maynard Police Department uses C4RJ as an alternative to criminal charges in the court system with more involvement and input from victims.

At the Tiger Trot PTO fundraiser, a ride to school in a Maynard Police cruiser was auctioned off. This morning, Officer Corrigan and Officer Ruggiero picked up these lucky recipients and dropped them off at school on June 15th.

On June 19th, the Maynard Police Department and Middlesex County Sheriff's participated in High Five Monday for the last day of school.

Training

Throughout the month of June, Sergeant Duggan conducted Firearms Training for the Maynard Police Department.

In June, all personnel who are E911 certified completed their 16 hours of continuing education required to maintain certification. The courses ranged from FEMA Introduction to Hazmat Materials to Active Shooter.
