On May 24th, 2024, Officer Gennaro responded to a residence for a report of a hit and run motor vehicle accident. A vehicle struck a storage container on the street. A description was provided to surrounding towns. Video footage was obtained from an area business. The incident was documented, and the owner was advised on how to proceed.

Community Outreach

Maynard Police and Fire Departments put on a mock car accident for Maynard High School students on May 1st, 2024. This was to highlight the dangers of distracted driving, and we hope that this had an impact on students. Thank you to SRO McCann, Captain Parr for organizing-and to the student volunteers for helping us with this successful demonstration.

May 4th, 2024, was International Firefighters Day. We would like to thank all of those in the fire service who protect our communities, with a special thank you to every member of the Maynard Fire Department!

On May 10th, 2024 Our friends from Minute Man Arc came for a tour & visit. You may have spotted some extra helpers doing traffic enforcement on Main Street with Officer Banatoski! Thank you for stopping by!

On May 13th, 2024 we welcomed Officer Jordan Blackington back from Fort Moore in Georgia. For the past 6 1/2 months he has been away at Basic Combat Training, US ARMY Infantry School and US ARMY Airborne School. He joins C. CO 1-143rd Airborne Infantry of the Rhode Island National Guard. Welcome Home SPC Blackington. We are so proud of your service and accomplishments.

Training

Detective Sergeant Manchuso attended an FBI LEEDA training.

Officer Blackington attended In Service training.

Officer Wellborn attended Leadership training.

Sergeant Davoll attended Post Promotional Suicide Prevention and Monitoring Persons in Custody.

Officer Wellborn attended Post Promotional Suicide Prevention and Monitoring Persons in Custody.

The Maynard Police Department patch made it as far as Jost Van Dyke, BVI. Pretty cool! Have you spotted a Maynard Police Department patch “in the wild”? Feel free to share where you have seen it!
