On October 17th, 2022. Officers responded to a Mill and Main Place business that reported they had been the victim of fraud. An individual created an email address like a legitimate company they were working with, and banking information had been changed for a scheduled transfer. The incident was documented, forwarded to the Detective Bureau and the company was advised to follow up with their bank and IT Department.

DPW Update

Town Wide fall 2022 Paving Program. The Maynard Department of Public Works would like to notify all residents of Maynard that Lazaro Paving will be reconstructing several streets in Town this fall, starting on or around Tuesday November 1st, and lasting until around December 15th. The following areas will undergo roadway construction:

- Great Road: from the Sudbury Town Line (approximately Maybury Road) to Parker Street (Route 27).
- Assabet Street: from the dead end to Riverview Avenue to Stow Town Line (11 Assabet Street).
- Old Sudbury Road: from the Sudbury Town Line (Cranberry Circle) to the Acton Town Line (Old Powder Mill Road).
- Old Marlboro Road: from Parker Street to Tobin Drive (just short of Great Road).

Travel on these roads may be delayed, or temporarily detoured; please plan accordingly. Please contact the Maynard DPW Office with any questions, or issues. Thank you in advance for your patience as this work is performed.
