Incidents

On February 3rd, 2023, Ofc. Wellborn was conducting an area check of the Beijing Royal School, when he observed a vehicle parked near the entrance of the school. Four juveniles were inside of the building and were summonsed for trespassing.

On February 5th, 2023, Officers responded to multiple reports of burst water pipes in Maynard after a cold snap.

On February 11th, 2023, Ofc. Gates responded to The Coolidge School for a window that had been broken. Officers investigated and determined the window did not appear to have been broken from the inside. Facilities was notified and fixed the issue.

On February 12th Ofc. Gates responded to the Maynard Dog Park for a verbal altercation between two parties after a fight between two dogs. Animal Control responded to the scene and spoke with all parties involved.

On February 17th, 2023, Ofc. Morahan responded to Waltham Street. A party reported that while he was walking, he felt something hit his head and a car drive past him. He observed pennies on the ground. A description of the vehicle was provided, and Officers searched the area, and the incident was documented.

On February 24th, 2023, Ofc. Banatoski responded to a residence for a report of four fraudulent purchases that were made on her credit card, and one account was opened under the resident's name. The new account was able to be closed, and a refund was issued. The other purchases are being investigated by Detectives.

On February 28th, 2023, Ofc. Gates responded to the Police Department to speak with a resident about his signature being forged on a check. A fraudulent claim was filed with the individuals bank, and the matter was forwarded to Detectives.

Otis

Chief Michael Noble is pleased to welcome the newest comfort dog to the Maynard Police Department.

Otis, a 10-week-old chocolate lab, will officially join the Department on Feb. 8. as part of the new Maynard Police comfort dog program.

Otis will spend most of his time on shift in Maynard Public Schools with School Resource Officer Allison McCann. Otis will help with de-escalation, and provide comfort to children in need who may be experiencing or have experienced trauma.

He will also visit senior centers and assisted living facilities. Otis will be a regular presence at community events.

Otis comes from Puddleduck Labradors in Morrill, Maine, and will begin basic obedience training once in Maynard.

Chief Noble and the Maynard Police Department wish to thank the community partners for donations and support that have made Otis's arrival possible.

Maynard Veterinary Care, 15 Digital Way, Unit 4., has generously offered to donate routine veterinary visits to the Maynard comfort dog program.

Middlesex Savings Bank also made a significant donation to the program.

Residents who wish to donate to the program can send a check to the Maynard Police Association. Checks must include "K-9 Program" in the memo line. Donations will be used toward training, equipment, food, and emergency care if needed.

Community Outreach

On February 2nd, 2023, the Maynard Fire Department opened the training room as a warming center.

Otis, the new Maynard Police Department Comfort Dog arrived in Maynard from Morrill Maine on February 7th, 2023.

On February 14th, 2023 SRO McCann and Otis responded to Concord to support staff, students and CPD personnel after a swatting incident at the Middlesex School.

On February 16th, 2023 SRO McCann and Otis responded to the Lexington Christian Academy for a debriefing with staff and students after a swatting incident.
